

Austin Families Genealogical Society Files

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT OF
DANIEL H. AUSTEN AND MINNIE A. CHESBRO
OF OSWEGO COUNTY, NEW YORK

—————
A Happy Event

Yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. James McCarthy in this city, Mr. Daniel H. Austen, of Mexico, Oswego County, and Miss Minnie A. Chesbro of this city were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Markham, and it was witnessed by a large number of friends of the bridegroom and bride from this city and the eastern and southern parts of the county. The guests numbered about one hundred and fifty, among them the Rev. W. F. Hemingway of Mexico, and Rev. E. A. Wilson of North Scriba.

The bride is a sister-in-law of Mr. James McCarthy. She has for the past seven years filled the position of book keeper in his large establishment and during Mr. McCarthy's absence has had entire charge of the business. This lady has many attached friends in this city who will unite in wishes for her future happiness. The wedding banquet was an elegant and luxurious affair and the presents were many and costly. The bridal party went east last evening.

—————
REFERENCE

The Oswego Daily Palladium, Thursday 4 December 1879, page 4.

Submitted to AOAGS on 10 August 2004 by member Richard C. Drake on 10 August 2004.