

LORENZO D. AUSTIN AND CATHERINE AUSTIN

Pictures of the grave stones of my great great grand parents, Lorenzo (L. D.) and Catherine Austin, have been placed on the Tompkins County New York Roots Web Site. They are in the Newfield Village Cemetery.

These picture were taken earlier this week by Cathy Knauff, a volunteer for the Tompkins County Roots Web Site. I guess spring has come to Tompkins County, New York, as I do not see any snow!

Cathy has spent the last two (maybe more) summers walking several Tompkins County Cemeteries, taking pictures and recording grave stone inscriptions. Where would we be without people like Cathy?

As you can tell by the flag, Lorenzo was in the Civil War, as were two of his sons, John P. and Ancil.
