Centre County, PA Death Register, Book 1, page A1:

Owen Austin, male, age 61, married, birthplace not known, laborer, died 3 Feb 1897 at Julian of gun shot wound, buried at Campbells.

Obituary of Owen Austin:

His obituary in the CENTRE DEMOCRAT of Thurs., 11 Feb 1897 reads: "Julian Items. - On the 3rd inst., Owen Austin, a veteran soldier answered the 'last roll call.' He was a private in Camp. [sic, Comp.] E. 5 Regiment P.V. Reserves. He enlisted, June, 1861 and was wounded in the battle of the Wilderness, being shot through the left breast, the ball passing near his heart and coming out under the shoulder blade. He was discharged by surgeons certificate, Oct. 16, 1862. His death was caused by his wound. He has been a great sufferer these many years. His age was 61 years. Services in the U.B. church on the 5 inst. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Henderson, of the Baptist church. He was buried in Campbell's cemetery in sight of his old home. The pall bearers were his old comrades: L. C. Bullock, Daniel Willers, John Myers and Daniel Williams. The last named helped to carry him off the battle field when he was wounded. Over 33 years later he helped to carry him to the grave. In addition to the pall bearers, the following named soldiers attended his funeral: W. A. Hartsock, J. W. Biddle, John Stamm, Thomas Burnes, John Bruss, George Gill, Oliver Irvin, Wm. Gill, A. B. Meyers, Wm. Sanderson, W. S. Williams, Henry Hale, John Reid, Jackson Donley, P. W. Swope, W. C. VanValin, John Craig, and I. F. Davis."

An RN told me his death was most likely due to infection in the wound for years.

I know I have seen his grave at the Julian Cemetery in Huston Twp. I'm not sure why the record says he was buried at the Campbell cemetery, but it is not far away so they could have made a mistake.
